NECROLOGY

Arnold M. Shankman (1945-1983)

Professor Arnold M. Shankman, friend and contributor to these pages, died on March 1, 1983, at the age of thirty seven. Professor Shankman, who taught at Winthrop College, Rock Hill, South Carolina, was a brilliant light on the horizon of American and American Jewish historiography. He was the author of four books and over forty articles. But even more, he was a warm and sensitive human being. We shall miss his wisdom, his liberal humanism and, above all, the courage which characterized his struggle against the illness which ultimately deprived him of the opportunity to realize his full potential. May his memory be for a blessing.
